

Web Resources

NEW TEACHER INDUCTION PROGRAM

Student Success/ Learning to 18	Professional development and training, specific to the needs of new teachers, should include the following core content:
	Practical teaching strategies, tools, resources and opportunities to improve student achievement and increase program options and flexibility so that all students are supported in achieving success in secondary education	Knowledge and effective use of relevant and diverse career resources in the classroom	Knowledge and effective use of strategies for identifying and teaching students who are at risk	Knowledge of ways to facilitate connections for students with the student success, special education and/or guidance teacher in the school	Knowledge and understanding of the teacher's role in facilitating effective transitions for students from elementary to secondary, and from secondary to post-graduation options, as well as the range of post-graduation options for all students	Knowledge and understanding of the student success programs available in their school and board (such as credit recovery, experiential learning opportunities, alternative education)
Student Success/Learning to 18 Topics include: Expansion of Cooperative Education, Specialist High-Skills Majors, Dual Credits, E-Learning, Transitions, Ontario Youth Apprenticeship Program, Resources for Literacy and Numeracy
Elementary to Secondary School Transitions
Results, Research and Recent Announcements

Click here to access French language resources to support professional development in this core content area.